

BOSTON BOOK FESTIVAL 2023

PRESS PACK

Boston Book Festival was held for the first time in 2021 with most of its planning going on during the Covid Pandemic. However we battled through and have ended up putting on two very successful events on in September 2021 and 2022. We have managed to attract some great authors including Michael Morpurgo, Benjamin Zephaniah, Millie Johnson, Hannah Gold, Ellie Griffiths and Richard Cole.

After putting on a very successful History Book Festival in June we are now planning our big event in September which will take place from Thursday 21st to Sunday 24th. The events will be taking place in Boston's beautiful and historic buildings – Boston Guildhall, Fyde House and Blackfriars Theatre. We have a great selection of authors coming including Megan Clawson, a local girl who now lives in the Tower of London who has used this experience as a basis for her book “Falling hard for the Royal Guard”. Also Jay Courtney , author of “Juicy Crones”. Jay and her Juicy Crones show how you can make post-menopause life magnificent! For crime fans we have Philippa East and Barbara Copperthwaite and for a huge dose of inspiration we have Emma Sheardown who will talk about her book “There’s no such word as can’t”.

Fans of Look Norths weatherman Paul Hudson better get their tickets booked early as we think he will be very popular. Leslie Cavendish was hairdresser to the Beatles for many years and has many tales to tell. Come and listen to him talk about his book “The Cutting Edge”.

There are many more wonderful authors so look on our website and social media to find out more

Booking through Blackfriars Theatre and Arts Centre on 01205 363108 or

www.blackfriarsartscentre.co.uk

Further details about all our authors and talks can be found on our website www.bostonbookfest.co.uk

Facebook – Boston BOOK Festival UK

Twitter@bookboston

BOSTON GUILDHALL AND FYDELL HOUSE

Why not come for the weekend and enjoy all we have on offer and explore our historic town with its fascinating American connections. Look on www.visitbostonuk.com or www.boston-england.co.uk for places to eat and stay.

See Boston History Tours on Facebook or www.mrsktours.co.uk to book a tour.

St Botolph's Church or Boston Stump

GET BOOKING!!!

If you would like to chat more about this event get in touch on 07717267265 or email keightley1@aol.com